

OPPOSE HB1651 & HB1652 – An Act Relative to Pet Adoption Safety
Rep. Bradford Hill (R)

Referred to Joint Committee on the Judiciary

What These Bills Do:

HB1651 & HB1652 establish that no person may receive, purchase, adopt, or shelter animals following their conviction of an animal abuse crime. Further, no animal breeders, animal shelters, or pet stores shall knowingly offer, sell, deliver, give, or provide an animal to any person convicted of an animal abuse crime.

They specify punishments for the animal abuser and the seller of the animal of a fine not less than $1,000 or imprisonment for a period of not more than one year for a first offense, and a fine not less than $5,000 or imprisonment of not more than five years for subsequent offenses.

Why You Should Oppose These Bills:

These bills would be nearly impossible for animal sellers to comply with without access to a publicly accessible, on-line animal abuse registry as proposed by HB1669. This is the only way those selling animals in the Commonwealth can make sure they are not in violation for selling/giving an animal to an individual previously convicted of animal abuse.

MassFed and the AKC (American Kennel Club) are concerned with legislation that provides for the creation and maintenance of animal abuser registries. We believe that the animal abuse registry requirements that would be created by HB1669 could easily be evaded. For example, an individual convicted of animal cruelty could evade tracking by providing sellers with fake or altered names, or by not providing updated addresses. Furthermore, the provisions of HB1669 could unfairly subject animal sellers who performed the required check to fines because an evasive buyer's actions avoided registry tracking. Online public databases such as this invite hackers, fraud and abuse. Furthermore, no evidence exists to prove that animal abuse registries reduce the rates of second or subsequent offenses or of deterring other potential animal cruelty violators. We believe a better use of the Commonwealth's resources would be to focus on and utilize enforcement activities that are proven effective.
