8 out, in line 52, the words “During any investigation or evaluation reported under section 18,”

9 SECTION 4. Section 14 of chapter 19C, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking
10 out, in line 1, the words “During any investigation or evaluation reported under section 5,”

11 SECTION 5. Section 85 of chapter 119, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking 12 out, in line 1, the words “During any investigation or evaluation reported under section 51A,”

13 SECTION 6. Section 37 of chapter 129, as so appearing, is hereby amended by inserting 14 after the fourth sentence the following sentence:- A fine assessed under this section shall be 15 deposited into the Homeless Animal Prevention and Care Fund established in section 35WW of 16 chapter 10.

17 SECTION 7. Section 174E of chapter 140, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 18 striking subsections (g) through (i) and inserting in place thereof the following subsections:-

19 (g) No person owning or keeping an animal, including a domestic animal or livestock,
20 shall subject the animal to cruel conditions that would otherwise violate section 77 of chapter 21 272.

22 (h) A person who violates this section shall: (i) for a first offense, be issued a written 23 warning or punished by a fine of not more than $50; (ii) for a second offense, be punished by a 24 fine of not more than $200; and (iii) for a third or subsequent offense, be punished by a fine of 25 not more than $500; provided, however, that for a third or subsequent offense, the animal may be 26 subject to impoundment in a local shelter or appropriate facility at the owner's, keeper's or 27 guardian's expense pending compliance with this section, or loss of ownership of the animal.

28 (i) A special state police officer appointed by the colonel of state police at the request of 29 the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals or the Animal Rescue 30 League of Boston pursuant to section 57 of chapter 22C may enforce this section pursuant to the 31 notice and court procedures under section 21D of chapter 40 for the non-criminal disposition of a 32 violation, if an animal control officer, after being contacted by the Massachusetts Society for the 33 Prevention of Cruelty to Animals or the Animal Rescue League of Boston in response to a 34 violation of this section, is unresponsive or unavailable.

35 (j) A city or town shall enforce this section through its animal control officers or police 36 officers in a manner consistent with the disposition provisions in section 21D of chapter 40.

37 (k) Nothing in this section shall preclude prosecution under section 77 of chapter 272.

38 SECTION 8. Chapter 272 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 39 section 77 the following section:-

40 Section 77 ½: Prohibition on access to animals by convicted animal abusers

41 (a) A person convicted of a violation of this section or of sections 77, 80 ½, 94, or 95
42 shall not harbor, own, possess, exercise control over, reside with, adopt, or foster an animal or 43 engage in an occupation, whether paid or unpaid, or participate in a volunteer position at any 44 establishment where animals are present for any length of time that the court deems reasonable 45 for the protection of all animals; provided, however, that the length of time shall not be less than 46 5 years after the person's release from custody for a first offense or less than 15 years after the 47 person's release from custody for a second or subsequent offense.

48 (b) The court shall notify relevant authorities of the duration of the prohibition within 30
49 days. Such authorities shall include any municipal officer involved with animal control and any 50 municipal official responsible for the issuance of dog licenses in the municipality of the 51 offender's residence or residences, and any special state police officer duly appointed by the 52 colonel of the state police at the request of the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of 53 Cruelty to Animals or the Animal Rescue League of Boston under section 57 of chapter 22C.
54 Such notice to authorities shall not be a public record under clause twenty-sixth of section 7 of 55 chapter 4 or chapter 66.

56 (c) A person convicted of a violation of the provisions in this section, as a first offense, 57 may petition the court to reduce the duration of the prohibition no more than once per year. Such 58 petition shall include: (i) an identification by county and docket number of the proceeding in 59 which the petitioner was convicted; (ii) the date the judgment of conviction entered; (iii) the 60 sentence imposed following conviction; (iv) a statement identifying all previous proceedings for 61 direct and collateral review and the orders or judgments entered; and (v) all grounds for 62 reduction of the duration of the prohibition claimed by the petitioner. The petitioner shall have 63 the burden of establishing by a preponderance of evidence all of the following: (i) the petitioner 64 does not present a danger to animals; (ii) the petitioner has the ability to properly care for any 65 and all animals the petitioner may harbor, own, possess, exercise control over, reside with, adopt, 66 or foster, or with whom the petitioner may engage in an occupation, whether paid or unpaid, or 67 with whom the petitioner may participate in a volunteer position at any establishment; and (iii)
68 the petitioner has successfully completed relevant classes and counseling deemed sufficient by 69 the court. The petitioner shall serve a copy of the petition upon the office of the prosecuting
70 attorney. The district attorney shall respond to the petition, specifying whether the petitioner 71 presents a danger to animals and whether the petitioner should have the duration of the 72 prohibition reduced. Upon receipt of a petition, the court shall schedule a hearing. If the 73 petitioner has met their burden, the court may reduce the prohibition, issuing corresponding 74 notice as established in subsection (b) and may order that the petitioner instead comply with 75 reasonable and unannounced inspections of the petitioner's residence or residences, for a period
76 of time the court deems appropriate, by an animal control officer as defined in section 136A of 77 chapter 140 or a police officer or special state police officer appointed under section 57 of 78 chapter 22C.

79 (d) Any person found in violation of an order incorporating the provisions of this section 80 may, in addition to any other punishment provided by law, be fined in an amount not exceeding 81 $1,000 for each animal held in unlawful ownership or possession and shall forfeit custody of any 82 animal involved in a violation of this section to the custody of an entity incorporated under the 83 laws of the commonwealth for the prevention of cruelty to animals or for the care and protection 84 of homeless or suffering animals.

85 SECTION 9. Section 77C of said chapter 272, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 86 inserting after the word, “present”, in line 58, the following words:- , adopt or foster an animal,

87 SECTION 10. Said section 77C of said chapter 272, as so appearing, is hereby further 88 amended by inserting after the word, “custody”, in line 63, the following words:- for a first 89 offense or less than 15 years after the person’s second or subsequent offense.

90 The court shall notify relevant authorities of the duration of the prohibition within 30
91 days, such authorities shall include any municipal officer involved with animal control and any 92 municipal official responsible for the issuance of dog licenses in the municipality of the
94 colonel of the state police at the request of the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of 95 Cruelty to Animals or the Animal Rescue League of Boston under section 57 of chapter 22C.
96 Such notice to authorities shall not be a public record under clause twenty-sixth of section 7 of
97 chapter 4 or chapter 66.
